

ONE-STOP HOP

Thanks to Avolus (0845 450 1504, www.avolus.com), people with more money than time can have all their private travel arranged for them with just one telephone call. The company, started by Londoner Justine Angelli, has access to more than 1,400 jets, helicopters and yachts and 1,000 chauffeur-driven cars. It can put together an entire journey, whether taking clients by limousine to one of Britain's 7,000 private airstrips or delivering them by helicopter to a private yacht. Members simply pay into a personal account, from which transport costs are deducted. There is no service charge.