Whatever your destination, make sure you travel in style with these luxury services

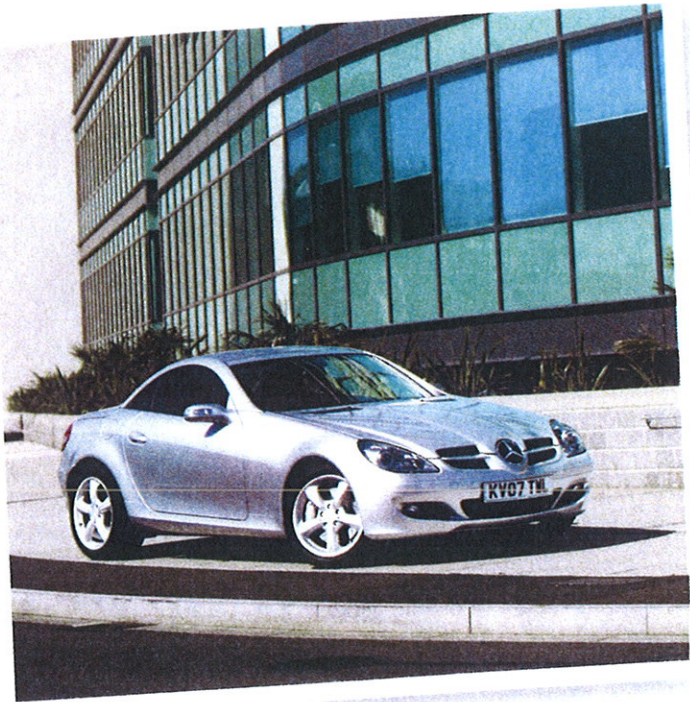

PTG Tours

Relax and take a leisurely ride through Portugal, Spain, Bulgaria, Italy and the US from the comfort of a train with PTG Tours' unique rail holidays to beautiful regions within these countries.

One of the most popular tours is the Vintage Port holiday, a seven- or 11-night tour centred on the beautiful Douro Valley in the north of Portugal, a UNESCO World Heritage Site famous for its Port wine and stunning scenery. Running in May, September and October in 2008, tour highlights include vintage train rides along the famous Douro Valley line and the Tamega, Tua and Corgo metre gauge lines, a long lunch river cruise, visits to the Mateus Gardens, vineyards and Oporto, and a vintage tram tour.

Other tailor-made tours include a Douro River Cruise on the Invicta river boat, and the Undiscovered Portugal VIP holiday staying in the Knights Templar town of Tomar and Evora, a World Heritage City. PTG Tours also has rail-based tours to St Petersburg, Cuba, New England and Colorado.

Land Yachts

Need to get from A to B in a group but public transport is a definite no-no? Travel in style and luxury on a VIP coach or Land Yacht, a smaller ultra-glamorous coach. The Kings Ferry Travel Group is an award-winning travel company that specialises in providing these luxury coaches for special events around the UK.

A favourite of top celebrities, famous bands and many football clubs, its coaches are the last word in sophistication. Seating up to 34 passengers, they have fully equipped kitchens, comfortable lounge areas for socialising, luxury leather seats throughout and full audio/visual systems so you can sit back and enjoy the entertainment.

The latest addition to the Kings Ferry fleet has an opulent rear lounge with leather seats, a large plasma screen and BOSE surround sound system – perfect for parties or socialising while en route.

For smaller parties of 12 to 19 passengers, Land Yachts are the answer. These VIP rooms on wheels have high power sound systems and are equipped with hi-tech toys such as playstations and the Playstation Singstar system – for all the karaoke kings and queens on board.

And don't forget the on-board catering. This is a five-star service with a selection of menus from continental breakfast to afternoon tea, champagne or canapés. It's truly the only way to travel in style.

Avolus

If your idea of travel is a chauffeured car that picks you up from your front door and takes you to a helicopter, which takes you to your private jet, that flies you to your yacht, rather than the hustle and bustle of a departure lounge, then luxury travel brand Avolus is the answer.

In these days of security queues and delayed flights, the founders of Avolus recognised that private travel is one of the last true luxuries available to man. The company is dedicated to seamless travel solutions across the globe and its unique service arranges the highest-quality transport, including private jets, helicopters, yachts, luxury coaches and private cars, anywhere in the world.

Its aim is to put the pleasure back into travel, so comfort, convenience and the personal touch are bywords. An individual account manager will tailor your travel to your needs and all the transport is fitted with up-to-date technology so you can work or relax while travelling.

Plus Avolus offers Lifestyle membership cards with priority access to all Avolus services, unparalleled flexibility and exclusive access to partnership privileges, including complimentary spa days, VIP tickets to sports events and discounts at top hotels.

For the ultimate in private luxury travel with a personal touch, Avolus is the answer.
